A cancellation/deferment may be available if you are employed full-time as a:

- Provider of early intervention services to infants and toddlers (birth to age two) with disabilities in a public or non-profit program.
- Provider of services to high-risk children. High-risk children are defined as children under age 21 who are low-income, at risk of abuse or neglect, have been abused or neglected, have serious emotional, mental, or emotional behavioral disturbances, reside in placements outside of their homes, or are involved in the juvenile judicial system. The place of employment must be a public or non-profit child or family service agency and the services provided to adults must be secondary to services provided to high-risk children.

A deferment is a temporary postponement of payments. During a deferment, interest does not accrue. If you are working in a position that you believe will qualify you for a cancellation, you may request a deferment at the beginning of employment to suspend billing and defer payments of principal and interest.

A cancellation is loan forgiveness. Following a year of service in one of the roles listed above, a portion of your Perkins loan balance may be cancelled. Cancellation rates are as follows:

1st year of service	15%
2nd year of service	15%
3rd year of service	20%
4th year of service	20%
5th year of service	30%

For qualifying early intervention and child service cancellations, a deferment should be requested prior to the first year of service. After that, request a cancellation and deferment each year on the anniversary of your original deferment.

Early intervention and child services cancellations require an employer-certified job description with job duties.
